About the artwork

Broken Wings draws inspiration from The Broken Wings by Gebran Khalil Gebran, reflecting the quiet tragedy of a love restrained by societal expectations and tradition. Through intricate ink work and subtle shadowy contrasts, the artwork captures the emotional depth of two souls bound by longing yet separated by the rigid structures surrounding them.

Set against the timeless landscape of the Lebanese mountains, the composition becomes a meditation on love, sacrifice, and the fragility of human dreams. The broken wings emerge as a central symbol of lost freedom and shattered aspirations, echoing Gibran's enduring themes of beauty, sorrow, and spiritual resilience.
