About the artwork

Layers of silk paper and white acrylic form a skin-like surface, delicate yet tactile, across which faded reds and fleshy tones emerge like warmth beneath the surface. Vein-like textures weave through the composition, suggesting the hidden lifelines of intimacy and emotions. Encircling the central forms, a red thread traces a subtle heart, holding and reinforcing love as labor—an enduring, tender force. This work embodies the way love and connection are felt and carried, visible in threads and layers, yet profoundly internal. It translates the divine energy of Ray of God into the lived, heartfelt experience of giving, holding, and sustaining love.
