About the artwork

Noble we; our fathers wielded power bequeathed to them, dealt law to the nations, each tribe its lawgiver.

All our lineage faultless, no light words our promises; not for us the vain thoughts, passions of common men.

Two lines, written in black jali diwani, taken from Pre Islamic Poet, Labid, are written to form the shape of a man riding a camel. The same text is written also in imitation gold leaf in square kufic in the background.
