About the artwork

It Takes One Sacred SpineIn dialogue with “The Big Day,” this work reflects the unseen strength that upholds love, family, and devotion. As color poured over the first canvas, its traces marked the second, forming soft, muted shapes that speak of endurance, sacrifice, and care — the quiet beauty of what it takes to nurture life. At its center, a vertical line of gold-lit lace symbolizes the woman's spine: graceful yet unyielding, embodying the divine role of motherhood — a sacred calling, a strength entrusted by the divine.
